

ALLIES SEND TROOPS TO SAVE ROMANIA

French Commanders and Russian Forces Join King Ferdinand in Field.

Have the Russians resumed the attack. Evidently every available soldier is being rushed to the Romanian front.
It is realized that the outcome of the struggle to invade Romania will have far-reaching effects and that a Teuton victory might keep Greece out of the war.
On the Danube an artillery duel is in progress. Bucharest reports efforts of the Bulgars to cross the Danube. The vessels carrying them were sunk by Roumanian fire. This may be an attempt to raid Roumania proper, just as King Ferdinand's troops crossed into Bulgaria.
Meanwhile it is probable that Sarraill's army must soon deliver a strong stroke which would do much toward lessening the pressure on Bucharest.
On the western front General Foch won further successes south of the Somme, capturing a German line a mile wide east of Belloy en Sauterne.
To the southwest he seized another mile front, extended his lines near Abbeville and took 20 prisoners.
The Germans in severe counter attacks won some ground near Chalons.
On the Italian front General Cadorna has consolidated the positions won recently on the Carso plateau. He is now in a position to flank the Austrians east of Gorizia and thus free the road to Trieste.

FIFTY AIRSHIPS IN RAID ON GERMANY

Nine of Allies' Aeroplanes Destroyed, Says Berlin.

BERLIN, Oct. 15, via London.—Details of the operations of entente aerial squadrons in their raids in southern Germany last week are given in reports issued by the war office. The attacks are declared to have been carried out by from forty to fifty machines, but it is asserted that no military damage was done. A total of seven persons killed and more than a score injured was the extent of the casualties, the statement says.
"On October 12, between 3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, several enemy air squadrons, totaling from forty to fifty machines, advanced in our south German home region. Bombs were dropped on Donaueschingen, Alphenhofen, Huesingen, Eschweiler, near Neustadt, and Hatzich, in the Rhine Valley and Rottweil, and caused no military damage. To a small extent they damaged private property and slightly wounded some civilians. At Tübingen a bomb fell on the reserve hospital, killing two children in a neighboring garden. At Tübingen and Oberndorf seven persons were killed and a number wounded, totaling twenty-seven. Nine of the attacking aeroplanes were brought down by our airmen and anti-aircraft guns, including one British aeroplane."

WOULD BUY ONE EVERY WEEK FOR BALANCE OF LIFE

Baltimore Man Formerly Suffered Agonies From Stomach Trouble and Constipation—Used Stomach Pump Daily—Claims Drego Has Cured Him.

"I would be willing to buy a bottle of Drego every week for the balance of my natural life, if it were necessary," says Mr. M. Oesterle, who lives at 13 Maryland avenue, and is an expert glass blower at Carr-Lowrey's Glass Works at Westport.
"I have suffered untold agonies with my stomach for a long time," he continued. "Everything I would eat seemed to sour. Bloat me all up, until I felt like a rope was tied around my waist, and the pains were unbearable. Then I would empty my stomach with a stomach pump and get relief. Even a glass of water would ferment and come back up, and be as hot as fire.
"All the time I was using the stomach pump I was growing weaker. For the food I would pump out was what should have been staying there and producing strength, but it was the only relief I could get. I became terribly constipated, got very nervous, couldn't sleep and was losing flesh daily. My work became a hard task, but I was thinking it out and hoping all the time to find something that would help me.
"There was so much talk about Drego, the new stomach remedy, I decided to try it. Now listen to this—when I had taken one-half of the first bottle I stopped using the stomach pump and haven't used it since. My appetite began to increase, and I'd eat more than I had in many a day—and it didn't hurt me either. The gas stopped forming, the pains vanished. I began to grow stronger and the nervousness ceased and I could sleep a whole night through without waking. My bowels would act daily in a normal and natural way. I have now taken three bottles of Drego, and I'd be willing to buy a bottle every week for the balance of my life if it were necessary, but I think a couple more will make me well and strong.
"Drego is composed of the juices and extracts of many different medicinal herbs, roots, barks and berries. It combines perfectly with the juices of the stomach and neutralizes the acid formation, thereby relieving indigestion and gastritis. It also acts on the organs of elimination and puts a stop to constipation promptly.
"Drego is sold and recommended by O'Donnell's Drug Stores. By Allen's Drug Store in Alexandria. By Bury's Drug Store in Annapolis. Advt."
